

Email Sent to Students June 4, 2021

Good Afternoon Baldy View ROP Student,

I hope you and your family are healthy and safe during these uncertain and unprecedented times.

I am writing with the good news that you may be eligible for additional grant funds made possible through the Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund. The Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund was created to provide colleges and universities with Emergency Relief Funds to be paid directly to students for “expenses related to the disruption of campus operations due to coronavirus.” These include eligible expenses for any component of a student’s cost of attendance or for emergency costs that arise due to coronavirus, such as tuition, food, housing, health care (including mental health care) or childcare.

BVROP is currently waiting for the Emergency funds to be released for distribution. In the meantime, we are requesting that students submit the attached application for “Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund Grants to Students”, to qualify for the financial support. Once BVROP is ready to distribute funds, we will notify all eligible students who completed an application with further information regarding their grant funds.

Please submit your application by Monday, June 7, 2021, and check your emails regularly for important updates about your eligibility to receive grant funds and details on how to receive the funds when they are released.

For more information, or if you have any questions about this information, please reach out to me via email and Cc: koria_january@bvrop.org our Fiscal Analyst.

Across the BVROP Campus, we are committed to your continued educational success. It is our sincere hope that the additional Higher Education Emergency Relief Funds will provide you with additional needed support at this time.

Kind regards,
